NO CANCELLATIONS

Like the majority of ticket vendors, Classics 4 Kids has a No Cancellation Policy for concert ticket reservations. Once your class or school makes a concert reservation with us, those seats are no longer available for us to book with other schools, and as a 501c3 nonprofit organization, we are financially unable to absorb those losses. We encourage you not to overbook, and to factor in potential absenteeism and/or illness at the time you make your reservation, as no cancellations will be accepted and no refunds will be given. If you cancel less than two months prior no charge, two weeks cancellation will result in a $50 invoice.

TWO-TIME CHANGE TO RESERVATION RULE

Classics 4 Kids is only able to accommodate two-time change to existing reservations per class or school per concert, and only 30 days prior to the concert that your students will be attending, with No Exceptions.

IN-CLASS CONCERT PREPARATION

Critical components of our unique and proven Classics 4 Kids education model are the pre and post in-class curriculum and discussion materials that we provide to teachers prior to each concert. We encourage all teachers to utilize these helpful educational tools to maximize student learning and program impact. Our custom designed materials are aligned with state standards and will help prepare your students for the performance they will be seeing and to create longer-term learning through post-concert facilitated class discussions and writing exercises.

FREE IN-CLASS DOCENT VISITS

Classics 4 Kids is able to offer a limited number of free pre-concert in-class docent concert prep sessions to you through our generous partners at Advocates for Classical Music. Please place your request for a free in-class docent concert prep visit with us at the time that you make your reservation, and we will have our friends at Advocates follow up directly with you to schedule their visit.

We look forward to seeing you and your students at the concert!
